34 The Mikron Group

A warm welcome

Dear Shareholders,

Although political and economic uncertainties increased during 2018, the Mikron Group enjoyed solid growth.

Mikron Automation in particular was able to book some large and very important orders which prove the trust of globally leading, blue-chip pharmaceutical customers. The cutting tool business also continued to benefit from very well utilized customer operations. More and more customers rely on our cutting tools, which often outperform competitor products by far. Finally, the service business also benefited from digitalization trends and from customers with good capacity utilization who required various kinds of services and regular spare parts supplies.

The innovation activities of Mikron Machining continued, while the release of the Mikron 6×6 machine at the AMB show attracted a great deal of attention and positive market feedback.

The appended short version of the Annual Report contains a review of the 2018 financial year. The full Annual Report is available in English on our website. You can also order a print version from us.

Management Report (excerpt)

The Mikron Group significantly increased order intake and sales in 2018 compared with the previous year, while improving profitability. Both business segments contributed to this positive performance. Overall, the Group achieved sales of CHF 314.7 million (prior year: 248.5 million, + 26.6%) together with order intake of CHF 362.3 million (prior year: CHF 278.9 million, + 29.9%). The order backlog reached a record CHF 195.7 million on December 31, 2018 (end of 2017: CHF 157.2 million, + 24.5%). With EBIT at CHF 13.9 million (prior year: CHF 2.8 million, + 396.4%) the Group improved its EBIT margin from 1.1% in 2017 to 4.4%.

Group business review

Both business segments in the Mikron Group were able to strengthen their market positions in the year under review. The Group's capacity utilization across all the sites improved steadily over the year, with all operations working at full speed in the last few months. Both business segments had to deal with temporary supply bottlenecks in materials procurement. The high demand for its products meant that the Mikron Tool division reached its capacity limits, despite the continuous increase of capacity.

Mikron Automation established itself further as a leading technology supplier in the European and US pharmaceutical and medtech industries. Asian demand for Mikron Automation assembly systems remained significantly lower than the volumes from Europe and the US

As in the previous year, Mikron Machining Solutions made good use of the growing demand in its tool and service business. Demand for transfer machines was also good overall, despite being very unevenly distributed over the year. The resurgence in interest in Mikron's larger systems was particularly pleasing.

Order intake

The Mikron Group reported order intake of CHF 362.3 million in 2018, representing an increase of 29.9% against the prior year (CHF 278.9 million).

Europe (incl. Switzerland) remains Mikron's most important market, with approximately 49% of orders received in 2018 placed by European customers (previous year: 62%). The two strongest market segments are still the pharmaceutical/medtech industries with 40% and the automotive industry contributing 31% (prior year: both 31%) to the overall order intake. In North America, Mikron Automation made a significant contribution to the good order intake, while Mikron Machining Solutions remained below expectations with machine orders in this market. Compared with 2017, Mikron reported similar levels of order intake in Asia, mainly from the writing instruments and automotive industries.

Net sales, capacity utilization and order backlog

Posting annual net sales of CHF 314.7 million, the Mikron Group exceeded the prior-year result (CHF 248.5 million, +26.6%) markedly.

While Mikron Machining Solutions succeeded in increasing sales by 29.2%, the Automation business segment posted an increase of 24.6%

Some sites were still underutilized at the beginning of 2018. However, the situation improved steadily in the course of the year overall, with most companies reporting good capacity utilization by the end of 2018. The Tools and Services areas were experiencing overload, which is resulting in long delivery times. Mikron expects demand in this area to continue and has therefore increased the relevant capacities, and will continue to increase it.

At CHF 195.7 million, the Mikron Group's order backlog at the end of 2018 was 24.5% higher than the prior-year figure, setting a new record. While the Machining Solutions business segment reported a year-on-year decline in order backlog of 9.6%, the Automation business segment increased the same figure by 56.0%.

Profitability

In the 2018 business year, the Mikron Group reported a significantly improved EBIT of CHF 13.9 million (previous year: CHF 2.8 million).

The EBIT profit of CHF 4.2 million (prior year: CHF -1.6 million) posted by the Machining Solutions business segment represents an improvement in profitability. The better profitability reflects the higher level of machine and service sales in 2018, absorbing the costs for the development projects, while the tool business was able to increase its contribution. Mikron Automation reported an improved EBIT of CHF 8.4 million after the prior year's EBIT of CHF 3.1 million. The EBIT margin increased to 5.4% (prior year: 2.5%).

Mikron's net earnings for 2018 were CHF 12.2 million, compared to CHF 1.2 million in the prior year. Net earnings per share for the year 2018 came to CHF 0.74 (prior year: CHF 0.07). At the General Meeting on 25 April 2019, the Board of Directors of the Mikron Group will propose a distribution from capital contribution reserves of CHF 0.20 per share.

Balance sheet, financing and equity ratio

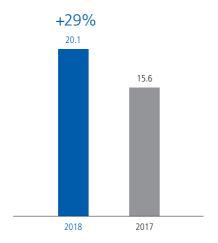

Overall, the Mikron Group's balance sheet remains very strong. Mikron is free of net debt and reports a healthy equity ratio.

Cash and cash equivalents plus current financial assets of CHF 44.6 million significantly exceed interest-bearing liabilities of CHF 10.6 million. The current financial assets of CHF 17.0 million are mainly invested in high-quality Swiss franc bonds with a residual maturity of less than three years. The net cash position remained at a high CHF 33.8 million or 11% of net sales (prior year: 14%).

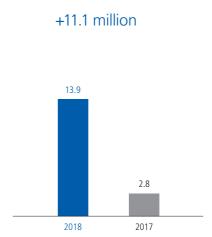

Net working capital decreased by CHF 0.8 million to CHF 32.3 million. Overall net working capital compared to net sales amounts to tain large orders won in 2018 are not expected to be repeated in 2019. Overall, Mikron Group is expecting a further rise in sales and profitability.

Outlook

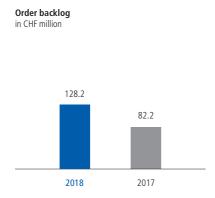

The Mikron Group started 2019 with a record order backlog, which is supporting its good capacity utilization and sales level particularly at Mikron Automation. Even though the general environment remains fragile, most of Mikron's key markets markets and, in particular, demand for services seem robust. The Group expects order intake to normalize on a somewhat lower level, however because cer-

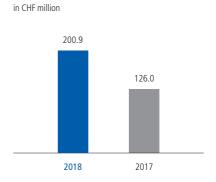

Mikron Automation

The Automation business segment saw a significant year-on-year improvement in many key business indicators in 2018. It reported an increase of some 60% in order intake, substantially higher sales, a marked improvement in profitability, and a record order backlog of CHF 128.2 million (end of 2017: CHF 82.2 million).

Mikron Automation's sales markets in Europe and America witnessed a surge in investment in the year under review. This provided the impetus for the business segment to win new customers at all sites both in its main market, comprising the pharmaceutical and medtech industries, as well as in the automobile and consumer goods industries. In Asia, with investments in fully automated assembly systems still sparse in the market segments covered by Mikron Automation, the order volume from this region again remained modest in 2018.

Except for Asia, all Mikron Automation sites reported considerably more orders in 2018 than in the prior year. The largest percentage increase was recorded by the Denver site – albeit compared with a somewhat modest prior-year baseline. In absolute terms, the highest order intake was posted by the business segment's head-quarters in Switzerland.

Mikron Machining Solutions

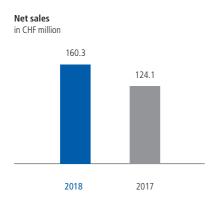

The Machining Solutions business segment posted a significant year-on-year improvement in sales and EBIT in 2018, starting the new year with decent order books. Both divisions contributed to the 29.2% increase in sales and the CHF 5.8 million improvement in EBIT.

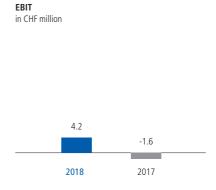

Since August 2018 the business segment has been operating as two divisions, Mikron Machining and Mikron Tool. This is intended to give both business areas a weightier presence in the market. In 2018, the Mikron Machining division profited from a generally solid demand in all key markets (automotive, electronics, watchmaking and writing instruments industries). In common with the sector as a whole, Mikron Machining also faced bottlenecks at various component suppliers. This called for a great deal of commitment and flexibility on the part of the procurement and project teams and in some instances resulted in unusually long delivery times.

The same applies to the Mikron Tool division. Demand for Mikron's high-tech tools remained very high in all market segments (automotive, medtech and watchmaking industries) throughout the year. Mikron Tool saw an exceptionally strong increase in sales to customers in the medtech industry, where demand for Mikron's range of tools for hard-to-machine materials was particularly high.

Principles of the Mikron Group compensation policy

Fair and transparent

The compensation models are simple, clearly structured and transparent. They guarantee fair remuneration that reflects responsibilities and competencies.

Results- and performance-based

Part of the remuneration paid is linked directly to the Mikron Group's results and to individual performance.

Long-term incentive

Part of the compensation can be paid in the form of shares subject to a lockup period. This gives recipients a share in the company's long-term performance and ensures alignment with shareholder interests.

Geared to the labor market

Compensation is geared to the market environment so as to attract and retain talent managers and employees. The business segments are structured according to product and service type and encompass all the functions required by an independent company, such as sales, development, production, logistics and administration. The centralized special departments, such as Accounting and Controlling, Treasury, Corporate Communications and Corporate IT Services, are part of the Corporate Service, which supports the individual companies as well as the Board of Directors and Group Management in their management and control functions. Among other things, the Corporate Service reports the income and expenditure related to an industrial property that is not required for operations and is rented out to third parties.

The Mikron Group consists of 11 active companies worldwide. The corporate structure and the companies are listed on page 129 of the Annual Report. The Mikron Group's management structure is independent of its legal structure.
